'She had seen her friends die'

Initially, however, the station's emotional help programme was criticised for being too close to the subject. But the station's response was to make more programmes in the next few years.

It is clear that station bosses are aware of the need to respond to the needs of their audience and that they are willing to do so.

As a result, the station is now a more attractive place to work and a more enjoyable place to watch.

Angara-led LUP holds nat'l consult

By [Name]

MANILA, Philippines — The Angara-led LUP (League of Unions of the Philippines) held a national consultation in Manila on Tuesday, July 15, 2008. The event was attended by representatives from various unions and organizations across the country. The consultation aimed to discuss the current state of labor relations in the Philippines and to identify key issues that need to be addressed. The Angara-led LUP is a coalition of various unions and organizations, including the Philippine Federation of Labor Unions (PFLU), the Philippine Union of Teachers (PUE), and the Philippine Union of Journalists (PUJ).

A new face of brain drain

The "new face of brain drain" is not a new phenomenon. It is a well-known fact that many of the world's top scientists and researchers are leaving their home countries to work in the United States. This is not a new trend, but it is a trend that is becoming more pronounced. The "new face of brain drain" is not just about scientists and researchers leaving their home countries to work in the United States. It is also about the United States attracting top scientists and researchers from all over the world. This is a trend that is becoming more pronounced. For love of dancing

By [illegible] & [illegible]

In the heart of the city, a young man and woman are dancing. The man is wearing a white shirt and the woman is wearing a black dress. They are both smiling and looking at each other. The man is holding the woman's hand and they are both moving to the music. The woman is wearing a black dress and the man is wearing a white shirt. They are both smiling and looking at each other. Figure 1 consists of four scatter plots arranged in a 2x2 grid, labeled (a) through (d). Each plot shows the relationship between the number of species (S) on the x-axis and the number of genera (G) on the y-axis. The data points are represented by open circles. The plots show a positive correlation between S and G for all groups: (a) Insects, (b) Fish, (c) Birds, and (d) Mammals. The axes are labeled 'Number of species' and 'Number of genera'.

Lifting of harvest ban on rattan, vines urged

By Arnold A. Florante

It should be lifted — The Philippine Rattan and Vines Association (PRAVA) has urged the government to lift the harvest ban on rattan and vines in the Philippines. The association says that the ban, which has been in place since 1988, is outdated and hinders the industry's growth. It claims that the industry has developed significantly since then and that lifting the ban would allow for sustainable harvesting and provide livelihoods for many people in the sector.

Gov't has no spare cash to buy San Miguel shares, Purisima says

By Arnold A. Florante

San Miguel Corp. (SMC) has no spare cash to buy back its shares, says Purisima. The company's president, Ramon A. Purisima, told the board of directors that the company does not have the financial capacity to repurchase its shares at the moment. He explained that the company's cash flow is currently being used to support its ongoing operations and investments. Purisima also mentioned that the company is exploring other options to raise capital, but the share buyback is not a priority at this time.
